- PLEASE READ THROUGH ALL OF THIS DOCUMENT AS IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR EXAMINATIONS.

School Regulations and Guidance for Public Exams

- Punctuality Make sure you know the dates and times of your exams. (Usually 9.15am or 1.30pm) Arrive at the exam hall at least 15 minutes before the exam is due to start. Pupils must be seated 10 Minutes before an exam is due to start. (So think 9.00am or 1.15pm!) Students who arrive over 1 hour after the start of the exam will not be permitted to enter the hall or sit the exam.
- Contact Details Please ensure that the school has your correct contact details. Pupils who are late or absent for an exam will be contacted by the school in the normal way. If you are unable to attend please contact the office.
- Pupils should wait outside and enter the examination hall in silence.
- Seating Before entering the hall, please check the location of your seat.
- School Uniform Normal rules on appearance and school uniform apply to all Public Examinations taken in school. This includes rules regarding jewellery and piercings. Pupils who are required to correct their uniform/appearance may be late for their exam.
- Extra Time This will be given at the end of the exam unless you have been advised otherwise in advance. Students should ensure that the yellow card for extra time is on your desk – if it is not there, please raise your hand to speak to an invigilator.
- Exam Clashes Students with clashes MUST follow the precise instructions issued.
- Pupils should go to the toilet before an exam. Any time absent from the examination hall is supervised and monitored.
- Equipment No books or personal belongings can be brought into the exam. Make sure you bring the correct equipment (e.g. calculators, protractors etc.) and stationery for a particular examination - additional equipment will NOT be supplied. Any pencil cases taken into the exam hall must be transparent. Drinks containers are permitted, provided they are free of any labels.
- Inhalers are allowed and may be used during an examination.
- All examinations are completed in BLACK INK only. Bring a spare pen/pencil.
- Electronic Devices Mobile phones, electronic devices and watches are not permitted inside the examination hall/room under any circumstances – whether they are switched on or off. If you are found to have any such device on your person, your exam will be cancelled immediately. These will not be collected by the invigilators inside the hall.

During the Exam

- Please follow the instructions of the Examinations Invigilators appointed by CCEA at all times - the Chief Invigilator will apply sanctions in the event of you failing to do so.
- You will enter the hall in silence and in row order.
- Calculator lids must be put on the floor below your desk.
- Please check that you have been given the correct paper and level.
- Make sure that your exam number corresponds with the number on your desk and the number you write on the exam paper. Sign the paper if asked to do so.
- Please be very careful about your actions during an exam. If you require assistance, raise your hand and remain in your seat facing forwards; an invigilator will attend to you. Any attempt to talk or turn sideways may result in your paper being cancelled.
- Copying/cheating of any kind will result in your paper being cancelled and you may be required to sit any other exams at another exam centre. This will be dealt with by the exam board AND will also represent a serious breach of school rules.

- At Loreto College, no pupil is permitted to leave the hall until the full allocated time for the exam has passed.
- At the end of the exam, please leave the hall in silence and avoid speaking until well away from the exam hall as others may be still sitting an exam or availing of extra time.

USING SOCIAL MEDIA AND EXAMINATIONS/ASSESSMENTS

We all like to share our experiences when taking exams and sharing ideas with others online can be helpful when you're studying or revising.

However, it is important to consider what you say and to think about what information is being shared as there are limits to what you can share, and you need to be careful not to break the rules. The rules are in place to ensure that exams are fair to everyone, students don't become worried about false rumours and any real issues can be sorted out quickly by the right people.

We'd like to ask you to act responsibly when interacting online. If you're in doubt about what you can and can't discuss online regarding exams, it's always best to check with your teacher.

If you receive what is or what looks to be assessment related information through social media, or any other means, you must tell your teacher or another member of staff. You must show them what you have received (if available). They will then report the matter to the awarding body, and it will be investigated.

Where candidates breach the rules for examinations, controlled assessments, coursework or non-examination assessments, awarding bodies have an obligation to investigate and may apply penalties.

You need to know that the following would be malpractice:

- copying or allowing work to be copied – e.g. posting written work on social networking sites prior to an examination/assessment;
- collusion: allowing other to help produce your work or helping others with theirs;
- asking others about what questions your exam will include (even if no one tells you);
- having or sharing details about exam questions before the exam – whether you think these are real or fake; or
- not telling exam boards or your school/college about exam information being shared.

Penalties that awarding bodies apply include:

- a written warning;
- the loss of marks for a section, component or unit;
- disqualification from a unit, all units or disqualification; or
- a ban from taking assessments or exams for a set period of time.
